

Private Practice Workshop Series With Briony Martin

??..professional will... handling money... ethical framework... CPD... limits of confidentiality... record-keeping... data protection... supervision... paying tax...??

Confused? Don't be!

Bramham Therapy strives to offer the best quality therapy for our clients. Sign up for one of our Saturday morning seminars to get up-to-date information on current best practice in our profession and how to integrate it into your own work.

Part 1: Regulation Updates

Saturday, 14th September 2019, 10.00-1.00

Bramham Therapy, 6A London Road, Marlborough SN8 1PH

A lot changed in the regulation landscape for counsellors and psychotherapists in 2018. The BACP published an updated ethical framework with changes around confidentiality and professional wills. Plus, new general data protection regulations (GDPR) came into force clarifying good practice for record-keeping and client privacy.

We'll take an overview of these developments and how they might affect our own private practices, with time for discussion and sign-posting to sources of further information and training.

Get up-to-date on:

- limits of confidentiality
- record-keeping
- professional wills
- privacy statements
- note-taking
- current debates around therapist regulation
- ... and more

Briony Martin

Part 2: Handling Money and Using Supervision, 29th February 2020 (see separate flier)

Briony Martin MA (Cantab), MBACP Accred., Dip. Sup., is an experienced therapist, supervisor and counselling educator. Her private practice is in Marlborough and Swindon, Wiltshire. She is a consultant trainer at the Willows Counselling Service in Swindon, and has supported counselling training at the University of East London. Briony trained integratively at Manchester University, is an experienced private practice trainer and provides consultation to Bramham Therapy on issues of best ethical practice.

Numbers limited. These workshops can be booked separately or together

They will be open to psychological therapists in private practice (including trainees) from all modalities

SINGLE workshop Part 1 - Early bird before 14th August 2019: £45, or after £50

BOTH workshops - Early bird before 14th August 2019: £75, or after £85

Includes refreshments, handouts, CPD certificates, but not lunch or parking

TO BOOK: <https://www.bramhamtherapy.co.uk/events/>

Contact: events@bramhamtherapy.co.uk or 07599 369566